

Thank you for purchasing Homeschooling with a Touch of Class copywork. I hope that you find this work beneficial for your children. It is my desire to provide you with not only good copywork material, but also valuable tools to assist you in using it with your children. For that reason, I have included such information as some background on the text, suggestions for use, and a list of classical music for your children to listen to while copying. I hope that these extras help make the copywork a more enjoyable experience for your children.

About St. Patrick

St. Patrick is known for bringing many pagans to Christ in Ireland during the 5th century A.D. Here is the account of one conversion that he is noted for:

One morning, while St. Patrick and his party members were resting near a well, two daughters of the king of Ireland approached them. They began to inquire about St. Patrick's beliefs, asking such questions as, "Who is God?" and "Where is God?" Filled with the Holy Spirit, he answered them with the text that is contained in this copywork book. Because of these teachings, the two young women were successfully converted that day. St. Patrick gave them further instruction in the faith and baptized them.

About This Book

The text in this book has been divided into smaller sections to make it convenient to use as copywork. There are also some areas of white space beneath the text in some places. This is to allow your children to be creative and draw their own pictures to accompany the words.

Suggestions for Use

There are multiple ways this copywork can be used. Your child can:

- write directly on the pages of this book,
- copy the text into a notebook or onto specially lined handwriting paper,
- create a poster with it,
- write it into the notebook or journal that he or she uses for religious studies.

Recommended Music

Listening to classical music while handwriting can make a potentially tedious task more fun. It also turns copywork into a multi-sensory experience because it adds auditory input to the already existing visual one. This multi-sensory approach strengthens connections in the child's brain. In addition, this technique is valuable for reaching children of a variety of learning styles.

Our God is the God of all men.
The God of heaven and earth,
of the sea and rivers.

The God of the sun, the moon,
and all stars.
The God of the high mountains,
and of the lowly valleys.

The God who is above heaven, in heaven, and under heaven.

He has a habitation in the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that are therein.

He inspires all things.
He quickens all things.

And He has made springs in a dry ground.

And dry islands in the sea.

And has appointed the stars to serve the greater lights.

He has a Son co-eternal and co-equal with Himself.

The Son is not younger than the Father.

Nor is the Father older than the Son.

And the Holy Ghost breathes in them.

The Father and the Son and the Holy Ghost are not divided.

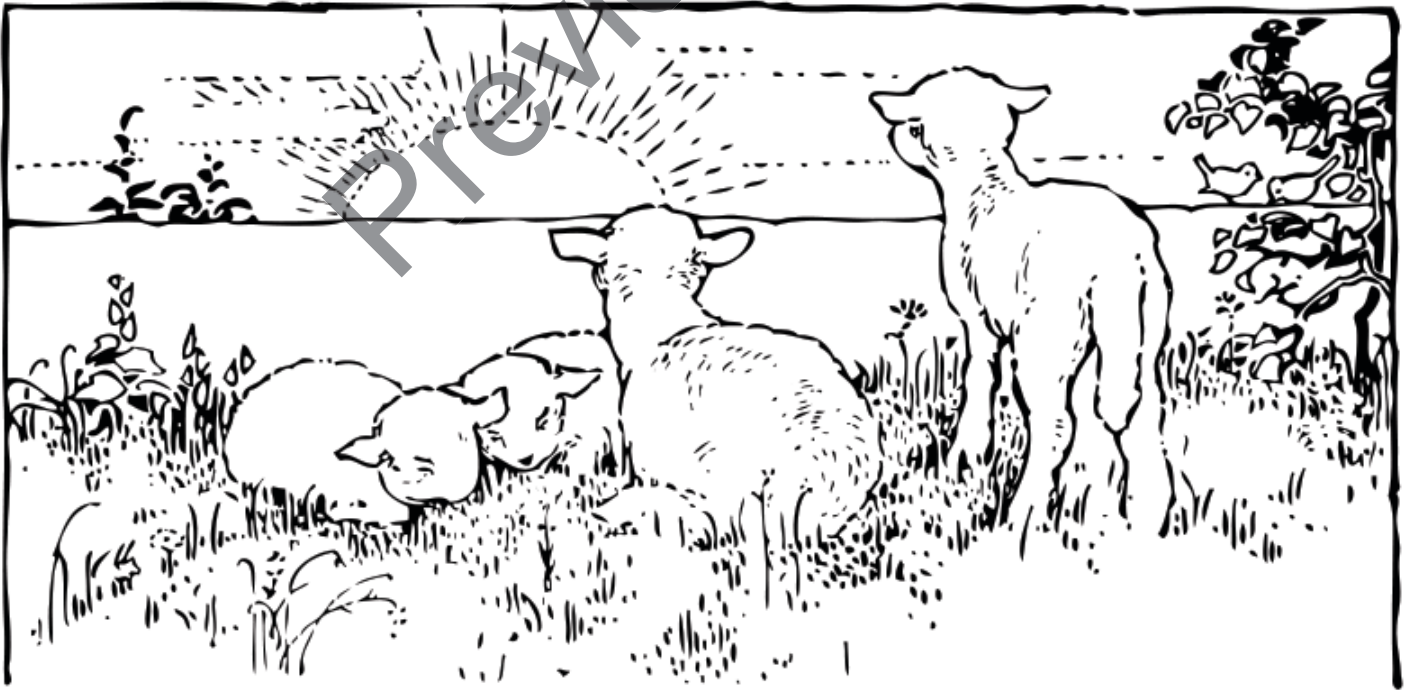

He is over all things.

He sustains all things.
