The pages in this product can be used to make a 28-page alphabet book. On the following page you'll find the cover and last page of this book. Each successive page has one letter of the alphabet. Children can color these pages, cut along the top dotted line to separate the book page from the pieces, then cut the pieces out and glue them on the page. Once all pages are completed, the children can assemble and staple them to create their own alphabet book.
